FROM THE EAST— Hello Brothers... I hope your Summer has been fun. I recently returned from a trip to Canada with my son, which was fantastic. Lots of great hiking and rafting in picturesque locations.

This month is a very busy month for us as we will have our official DDGM Visit at the Stated Meeting along with voting on the new By-Laws Resolutions. I therefore urge you to attend to make sure you get a chance to voice your opinion and cast your vote.

We are also very close to getting the Loan Refinanced and this means we will be able to fix the roof, get new carpeting downstairs and basically get our Lodge into shape.

Next Month on September 6th (Saturday) we will hold our Founder's Day Dinner. If you haven't purchased your tickets please contact myself or Brother Hector Mirabiles. Looking forward to see you there.
